

Government Engineering College Valsad

Electrical Engineering Department

Report on Webinar entitled as “Towards Electric Vehicles for Development of India”
Dated 24-09-2020

With encouragement from respected Principal Dr. V. S. Purani, an online webinar was conducted on “Towards Electric Vehicles for Development of India” for Faculties/Students/Researcher/Industry Persons, Total 262 Participants from India and outside India has participated in the session. Department of Electrical Engineering, Government Engineering College Valsad has organized the webinar on google meet platform, same was also live on youtube.

Speaker Dr. Pritam Gujarathi is a researcher in the field of Electrical Engineering, specifically in area of Electric Vehicles, he is certified energy auditor, and working in University of Technology and Applied Sciences at Nizwa-Oman.

Webinar started with encouraging speed of Principal Dr. V. S. Purani. Head of the Electrical Engineering Department Dr. K. L. Mokariya has introduced the speaker. During the webinar he has shared the Current status of Local Road Transportation, fundamentals of Electrical vehicles, Recent trends and Global scenario, retrofitted conversion of conventional vehicle. He motivated participants to work in area of Electric Vehicle. Queries from participants were solved by the speaker. After the presentation vote of thanks was delivered by the coordinator.

